Artist of the Month

Wethersfield resident Sean Fuss will have his photography on display. Sean's inspiration comes from whatever nature provides.

In the Display Case

Information about the 23rd Annual Scarecrows Along Main Street. This display is sponsored by the Old Wethersfield Shopkeepers Association.

An Evening with the Gillettes

September 18 at 6:30 pm

Harold & Theodora Niver will become William and Helen Gillette, flitting back and forth between being presenters and portrayals. Who was William Gillette? What was his connection to the greatest fictional detective of all time? You will also learn about Gillette Castle in East Haddam. What famous people visited the Castle? All are welcome. Registration is required. Space is limited.

Saturday Cinema

September 8 at 1:30 pm

No registration necessary

PG-13, 125 minutes

Wethersfield Library at Cornfest

September 22 from 10 am to 4 pm

Come visit the Wethersfield Library tent at Cornfest on the Broad Street Green!

Medicare 101

September 27 at 6:30 pm

Are you turning 65 or just have questions about Medicare? This seminar will educate you on Medicare options and programs available. Discover which choices best meet your needs. Learn how to maximize social security and protect your assets if you need long term care (LTC) and do not have LTC insurance. All are welcome. Registration is required. Space is limited.

TEEN PROGRAMS

Open to grades 7–12 only. Registration is required.

Banned Books Celebration

September 24 at 2:30 pm

Teens are invited to discuss the history of banned and challenged books, read excerpts from your favorites, play games, and celebrate the right to read.

Potato Chip Challenge

September 26 at 3:00 pm

We will guess different potato chip flavors in a blind taste test and vote for our favorite!
