On Display

Memorabilia celebrating 235 years of libraries in Wethersfield. It includes photographs, correspondence, membership cards, ledgers, and catalogues. This display is co-hosted by the Wethersfield Historical Society. Come see this unique exhibit!

Memoir Writing Workshop

November 6, 13, 20, & 27 at 6:30 pm

Writing workshop facilitator Debra Robbins will present a memoir writing workshop at Wethersfield Library Tuesday evenings in November. In this workshop, participants will learn how to take even the simplest life and transform it into a compelling narrative that is cohesive, polished and engrossing. This four-session workshop is designed to produce a finished memoir worthy of publishing or saving for the family archives.

Participants are kindly asked to attend all four sessions. Registration is required as space is very limited.

Book Talk: Diane Sheehan Shovak

November 29 at 6:30 pm

Author and Wethersfield resident Diane Sheehan Shovak will be at the Wethersfield Library to discuss her book Deceit. Set in Vermont, this mystery opens with an overheard altercation out on a lake. The scream that tears into the black night begins the unraveling. Lies and secrets are exposed in the family and in the town.

Diane Sheehan Shovak is a member of the Writer's Circle and has published personal essays, a short story, and a poem in two books published by the Circle. Deceit is her first novel. Signed copies of the book will be available for $10.00.

All are welcome. Registration is required.

Time to Talk

November 13, 20, & 27 at 7:30 pm

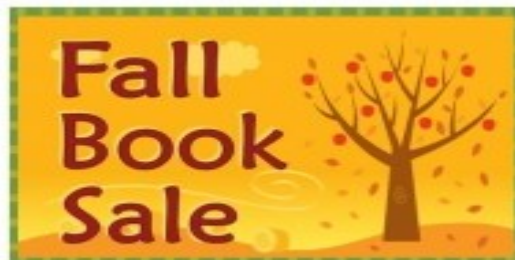

A conversation group for adult English language learners.

No registration necessary.
